

There are no roads or cars in Kainmari. People travel on foot, by bicycle rickshaw or by motorbike. Those who own livestock find it increasingly difficult to find grazing land because of the huge areas covered by shrimp ponds and salty water.